

Big changes... as of July 26th, I now live in Valencia, Venezuela!

Sarah in Venezuela...

First, let me apologize for allowing so much time to pass between updates. As I'm about to explain, the past couple of months have been quite an adventure...

As I mentioned in my last prayer letter, I've been praying a lot about new opportunities with Cru. Starting in about March of this year, I started talking to my leadership about moving back to Venezuela- a desire of mine since I left in 2010. The first week of July- after talking to Keith (my boss in Costa Rica), the leadership in Venezuela, and with a few others, I was given approval to move back to Venezuela long-term!

What does this mean for me and my ministry? I have been so blessed the past year and a half to work with the Latin America/ Caribbean region and have been trained and equipped in so many ways. I'll still be working with Keith and the LAC team part-time long distance from Venezuela, but will now also be using the skills I've learned and developed in Costa Rica to help the Venezuela national team. I'm so excited to be able to bless this relatively small team in the operational and administrative side of ministry! I will still be doing ministry full-time, and need your prayers and support more than ever during this time of transition.

Please Pray:

For an apartment for me to live in! I've been looking for the past 2 weeks and so far have been unsuccessful. Please prayer for a place that's close to my team where I won't feel isolated living alone.

For my spiritual, emotional, and physical health during this time of big transition (new job, new country, new living situation).

That I might be a blessing to the Venezuelan team, as well as serve the regional team well from a distance.

Thanking God for safe travels- arriving with all of my luggage and that Tomás is able to be in Valencia with me until the 25th to help me find an apartment, furniture, etc.

Thanking God for His goodness and provision as I celebrate 5 years of working with Cru! This month I also celebrate my 26th birthday!

Please call or email me with any questions about what I'll be doing:
